

Winter 2005 - Back in Ethiopia

Packed like sardines for four days without a complaint, the people of Wolaitta in southern Ethiopia enthusiastically sat with spellbinding attention to hear the preaching of the Word of God.

What hunger for the Word! Absolutely amazing! This is where I grew up as a kid and where Mom and Dad had such an effective ministry. How beautiful to see the fruit of their labors and others and the untethered grace of God.

Some estimated the crowds to swell to 50,000 people! God is doing His thing in His time. Let us rejoice together and may our hearts hunger for Him as these dear saints in Ethiopia. What a privilege to unpack what God has shown me through His Word and relate in Amharic to these faces who so eagerly sought to be fed.

Oh, how I appreciated your prayers that helped loosen my tongue, quicken my heart to share the love of Jesus. I just wish you had been there!

For Christ and His glory,

Bill and Grace
